Lancashire Open Exhibition
22nd July – 6th September

Liverpool Art Fair,
Pier Head Village,
until 10th September

Several of my paintings and limited edition prints were selected for the Liverpool Art Fair, which this year is open for ten weeks in a purpose-built gallery space as part of the Pier Head Village!

My Liverpool Composition and Wirral Composition limited edition prints, of the acrylic paintings based on my original skyline mural designs, are available framed or unframed. Two original paintings are also available – The Beatles: Eight Days a Week (Synaesthesia 64) and David Bowie: Starman (Synaesthesia 102).

I am pleased that two of my paintings were selected for the Lancashire Open Exhibition 2017, and are currently on display in Chapel Gallery, Ormskirk.

The Year 2016 (Synaesthesia 97), representing a sound heard by me on each day of last year, is partially seen here on the rear wall. In the foreground is a new work, Take Five (Synaesthesia 108), 50x25cm, acrylic on wood panel. Larger images of both paintings can be seen on my website.
